Robbery.

Committal from

Hoba District Court.

District Court of Molokai, Hawaii,
July 1st 1892.

The Queen vs
Miakita (Jap) Samada, " Tanimoto, " } Charged with Robbery on ~~the~~ Mazu-da (Jap). Contrary to Chap. XV of the Penal Code.
Defts severally pleaded - Not Guilty.

Okubo (Jap) Japanese Interpreter.

Mazuda (Jap) sworn and stated:

Live at Haalaea, Oahu - Marchi^w and I came to Kapaa last Friday - I went to Eleels last Saturday - I lived at Eleels 5 days and 5 nights - I am well acquainted with Miakita (Jap) but the others I am not, but they all reside at Eleels - I have not seen Samada and Tanimoto - I know Miakita, he resides at Eleels - I live together with Marchi^w at the house of Yoki - Miakita demanded of me to pay him $10. - I paid him $15.⁰⁰ sometimes previously and that he wanted a $10. balance from me - I told him that we have consulted on same to send that $10. for the son at Japan, and that I do not want to pay double on that $10. - It was on Wednesday night^{last} at 7:30 o'clock when Miakita made the demand for that $10., but I did not pay him a cent - Miakita came into the house of Yoki and said, that if I would not pay him the $10. he would kill my wife - Those that were in the house are Yoki, Marchi^w, Oteui,

5 Nakamaru - Miakita grabbed hold of Marchi^w and commenced to beat her - I told him - if you beat her and wounded her I will prosecute you - Yamada then called me a proud man, he took hold of my^{left} hand and dragged me outside and Tanimoto on my right hand - and Miakita pushed me on my back and I went out - while I was still standing at the door, Yamada took hold of me by the collar of my shirt with his left hand and he put his right hand into the right side pocket of my pants and took out 2 eagles ($20.) - Yamada then warned Miakita not to kill me, but to let him do it - Tanimoto took hold of my left hand and back of my shirt - we were about one fathom from the door, and Miakita cut my head twice with a knife, and while he was engaged in cutting my head, I grabbed hold of Miakita's hand and soon got possession of the knife which I threw inside where Marchi^w was, my wife - I did not fall to the ground - Miakita then took hold of a stick and struck me on my back, same way with Yamada, and Tanimoto struck me on my head and left arm - seeing that no one come to assist me I called for help in Japanese language & when I called out "Haul in." deft all fled away - the 2 eagles were wrapped up in a white cloth - it was in ~~my~~ right side pocket of my pants - Yamada extracted the same and he never returned the same to me since.

Yaki Jap, sworn and stated:

Reside at Elee, District of Koloa - I know Mazuda Jap, he lives at my house - he had a wife by name of Marchi^w - I have not seen the wound on the head - there was light in the room - Mazuda, Marchi^w, myself, Otsui^w and Nakamatsu were the people in the house at that time - Miakita came into my house that night at about 7:30 o'clock - he came after Mazuda and demanded the payment of $10. - I told Miakita to have the thing deferred for other times, but Miakita insisted on Mazuda to pay same right away, and Mazuda refused paying the money - while they were thus quarrelling, great number of Japanese came outside of the house - Samada was the first one arrived, he did not enter the house, and he called Mazuda to come out, and he pulled Mazuda out by the hand, and Miakita pushed him by the back - Mazuda was standing close to the door - they all went out - I stood at the door and saw about 4 or 5 Japs beating Mazuda - they were about 9 feet from the door - the light of the lamp is not strong enough to lighten the spot - Many Japs were calling to kill Mazuda; same time Mazuda called out "Help! Help!!" I was afraid to come and help him, because I heard many Japs shouting out to kill Mazuda, who they are I do not know - Marchi^w was standing outside of the door - after they had beaten him they all ran away - I do not really understand the cause of the quarrel, but, I suppose it must be that $10. business.

I have not seen any knife used - that knife belongs to me - I am utterly ignorant how this knife was produced before the Court - I do not know Mazuda having any money - I know he was wounded, but with knife or otherwise I do not know - I heard that he lost some money -

Marchi^{sr} sworn^{and} stated:

Mazuda is my own husband, residing at Elee - 5 days in Elee - Miakita cut the head of Mazuda with a knife on Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock, during month of June 1892 - well acquainted with defendants - the quarrel sprung from the fact that Miakita came^{and} demanded a $10. from Mazuda - we were within the house of Yoki when Miakita made the demand - there were 5 of us present in the house, 2 women^{and} 3 men, Mazuda, myself, Otsui^{sr}, Yoki, and Nakamaw, and including Miakita who lately entered^{and} made demand of the $10. - Mazuda refused him paying any money, because he does not want to pay double said amount -

Miakita was in a rage^{and} he said: If you will not pay me that $10. then you had better return my wife, and if you will not return her to me, I will stab her - he then commenced to beat me -

Mazuda then told Sept, If you threaten her (my wife) I shall prosecute you before the Court. Miakita replied, Why did you say that for, and if you do so, we will do you something - soon then 2 Japs entered, Yamada^{and} Tanimoto came in, and each one took hold of Mazuda's hands, Samada on the right ^{and} Tanimoto on the left, and they pulled him outside of door while Miakita pushed behind - Samada held him with his left hand on the collar of his shirt, and with his right hand he put into his pocket ^{and} took out a white handkerchief wherein 2 eagles were wrapped up - the whole thing were taken ~~was~~ by Samada - Tanimoto was holding the ~~right~~ left hand, ^{and} with his right hand held at the back of Mazuda's shirt - Miakita was standing in front of Mazuda - Samada suggested to Miakita if you are not going to kill Mazuda, then I will kill him - they were about one fathom from the door - Mazuda did call out for help in a loud voice when his head was cut, but no one appeared to his assistance - Mazuda took possession of the knife ^{and} threw it into the house - and they all went away - I saw the knife thrown into the room ^{and} I picked it up - Oteui ^{and} Nakamaru were there - the light was burning in the room which enlightened same - Mazuda when he threw the knife to me, he said, Pick up the knife with which I was cut -

Nakamaru ^{the} Jap, sworn ^{and} stated:

Reside at Elele, District of Kona, Island of Hawaii - know depts - living in the house owned by Yoki (Jap) - ~~the~~ Mazuda was wounded being beaten on Wednesday night, June 22nd 1892 at about 7:30 o'clock P.M. - the quarrel arises from the fact that Miakita came ^{and} made demand of Mazuda for $10. - there were 5 people within the house ^{then} Mazuda, Yoki, Marchi, Oteui ^{and} myself - the quarrel arises from the facts that Mazuda refused paying any money to Miakita - I have seen the Japs who dragged Mazuda out of the house, Miakita was pushing him out - the other two I have not perceived their countenances - Miakita was standing at the door and Mazuda inside the room - I was sitting down near by the place where they were standing - I heard some voices outside calling out to kill him and Mazuda called out for help, but I did not go out fearing that there are many Japs outside - later on Mazuda came in and I saw he was wounded on the head and that his shirt was torn to pieces - there was light in the room - Mazuda himself showed me the knife with which he was cut - Marchi also went out -

Prosecution Rests

Left Mito:

Otsu^w sworn and stated:

Know Left - I saw them at our house on Wednesday night - Miakita came to our house and demanded of Mazuda to pay him $10. which was refused - Mazuda stood up and saw a great number of Japs outside who were shouting at him, if he would not pay the money they will kill him, and he told them not to kill him - I did not see who pulled him out except Miakita who was pushing him out - Marchi^w and Yoki^t were standing at the door - Marchi^w went out and stood by the stone - Miakita was in the house and I did not see him stabbing or using any knife on Mazuda - I saw that knife lying on the table - the table was about 4 feet away from where I was sitting - I have not seen the knife missing from the table, and when Mazuda came in he showed us the knife - I have not seen the knife thrown in by Mazuda - there was light in the room -

Miakitath sworn and stated:

Reside at Ekele - have seen Mazuda on June 22nd 1892 at the house of Yoki - I went there and demanded him payment of $10. which I have paid to Nakaiamath, Marchi is my wife while in Japan - Marchi consented paying the same and ordered me to go home, and I went home without wounding Mazuda - I did not pushed him out - only myself went there - I have not seen Yamada and Tanimoto during that night and at that place - I went straight to bed - I did not handle this knife during that time - I did not sell Marchith to Mazuda.

Yamadath sworn and stated:

During that night I did not ~~went~~ go to the house of Yokith.

Tanimototh sworn and stated:

I never went to the house of Yoki during that night.

By the Court: Committed to Jury August Term 1892 of the IV Judicial Circuit of the Hawaiian Islands to be held at Nawiliwili, Maui.
